Other Business Standing on the Order Paper

By leave of the Assembly to set aside Standing Orders 146 and 188, Mrs. Hivon (Joliette) moved:

THAT an ad hoc committee be established for the purpose of examining the issue of the right to die with dignity and, if need arises, of the procedural requirements;

Regarding the membership and the operation of the committee,

- the committee shall be composed of 16 members distributed as follows: nine from the parliamentary group forming the Government, including the committee chairman; four from the parliamentary group forming the Official Opposition, including the committee vice-chairman; one Member from the Second Opposition Group; the independent Member for Mercier; one independent Member;
- the parliamentary groups shall forward to the President of the National Assembly the list of committee members, including the name of the chairman and of the vice-chairman, not later than fifteen days after this motion has been carried;
- the committee shall begin its proceedings immediately upon receiving the consultation paper from the Committee on Health and Social Services;

- the committee shall hold public or deliberative hearings in compliance with the procedure stipulated in Standing Order 148, notwithstanding that it is a matter referred to it by the Assembly;
- the committee may table interim reports in the National Assembly;
- the interim reports and the committee's final report may contain observations, conclusions and recommendations;
- the committee shall not be restricted to one clear day, following the general consultation, to determine in a deliberative meeting the observations, conclusions and recommendations it intends to table in the National Assembly;
- the rules of procedure relating to the standing committees shall apply to the committee insofar as they are compatible with the provisions of this motion;

Regarding both consultations held by the committees,

First consultation

- The Committee on Health and Social Services shall commence its proceedings not later than 60 days after this motion has been carried, and it shall hold special consultations and public hearings to examine the issue of the right to die with dignity and that, for this purpose, it shall hear experts who will be selected during a deliberative meeting, and that the latter shall discuss particularly, during their presentation, the following issues: end-of-life conditions and care; the law and eventual supervisory conditions surrounding the right to euthanasia; any other consideration that may enlighten the members of the committee;

- The committee's steering committee shall determine the total duration of each hearing and the respective lengths of the presentation and the exchanges with the committee;
- Upon the conclusion of the hearings, the committee shall produce, within 45 days, a consultation paper for the purpose of facilitating citizen participation in the general consultation that will be initiated by the ad hoc committee; the said document shall be immediately forwarded to the ad hoc committee without it being released;

Second consultation

- The ad hoc committee shall examine the consultation paper, and, if need be, shall add information thereto;
- The said paper shall be tabled in the National Assembly within thirty days following its reception;
- The general consultation shall begin on or about 17 August, or within a reasonable time, so as to enable individuals and organizations to produce a brief;
- The committee shall set aside time periods to hear citizens who will have indicated their desire to be heard by the committee, despite their not having submitted a brief thereto;
- The committee may meet outside of the National Assembly buildings and of Québec City;
- The committee may have recourse to videoconferencing within the framework of the hearings;
- The committee shall hold an on-line consultation so as to encourage the most extensive population participation possible;

3 December 2009

Regarding human, technical and financial resources,

- the Secretariat of Committees ensures the support required for the proper conduct of both committees;
- the committees dispose of the resources required to carry out their respective mandates, particularly as regards support to research and publicity, including the distribution of the information package highlights throughout all Québec households, so as to encourage citizen participation.

After debate thereon, the question was put on this motion; a recorded division was thereupon demanded.

At the request of Mr. Dupuis, Government House Leader, the division was deferred until Routine Proceedings on the next sitting day.

Mr. Dupuis, Government House Leader, moved the adjournment of the Assembly until Friday, 4 December 2009, at 9.45 o'clock a.m.

The motion was carried.

Accordingly, at 12.49 o'clock p.m., Mrs. Houda-Pepin, First Vice-President, adjourned the Assembly until Friday, 4 December 2009, at 9.45 o'clock a.m.
